DETAILED ITINERARY

MEAL PLAN:

B – Breakfast                      L – Lunch                      D – Dinner

Meal included are listed on each day's title in red

DAY 01 – 08 SEP 2026: HA NOI – ARRIVAL @14:05

Upon arrival at Noi Bai Airport, after you finish all customs and immigration procedures, please head to the exit gate, column 14 and look for your guide who will be waiting for you, holding a welcome signboard with your name on it. Then, you will be transferred to your hotel in town by a private vehicle.

Overnight in Ha Noi.

DAY 02 – 09 SEP 2026: HA NOI – CITY HIGHLIGHTS (B/-/-)

Adi, Verly, Sol & Neil: Pick up at 8:30

The capital of Vietnam, Ha Noi is a perfect blend of old and new, Asian and European, a dynamic unification of tradition and progressive 21st-century thinking. Despite recent rapid development, the city has retained much of its traditional identity.

Visit the complex dedicated to Ho Chi Minh, the nation's founder and affectionately known to the Vietnamese as "Uncle Ho". Make the first stop at the historic Ho Chi Minh's Mausoleum, an imposing monument built to serve as the final resting place of Uncle Ho. Continue walking through the beautiful botanical garden of the Presidential Palace to visit Uncle Ho's humble house, built based on a rural Vietnamese stilt house with simple design in a tranquil setting, reflecting his simple, pure and noble lifestyle. Tour the One Pillar Pagoda, built in 1049 of wood on a single stone pillar, designed to resemble a lotus blossom, a symbol of purity. Continue to the Tran Quoc pagoda, Hanoi's oldest pagoda, located on a small island of West Lake.

In the afternoon, visit the Temple of Literature, the first university of Vietnam. Constructed in the 11th Century, this stunning temple constitutes a rare example of well-preserved traditional Vietnamese architecture and is featured on the back of the 100,000 Vietnamese dong banknote.

Step into the heart of Hanoi's Old Quarter, a lively network of narrow streets with a history of over a thousand years. Once a bustling commercial center where each street specialized in a specific craft or trade, it remains a vibrant hub today. You'll walk past historic tube houses, charming shophouses, and busy markets where tradition and modern life intertwine, offering a vivid glimpse into the city's everyday rhythms.

Finally, escape the lively streets and slip into a hidden café tucked in a quiet alley. Built with recycled and repurposed materials, this creative space is a true hidden gem. Watch a demonstration of how Hanoi's famous egg coffee is made, then savor this rich and creamy treat – the perfect way to end your cultural journey through the capital.

Rick & Doritte: Pick up at 5:30

Once known as Saigon until 1975, Ho Chi Minh City has grown into Vietnam's bustling economic hub. Amid its rapid modernization and lively energy, the city preserves deep connections to its past through timeless landmarks and elegant French colonial architecture.

Transfer to Dong Khoi Street, where history is conveyed via elegant colonial buildings. Stop at CIA building, a crucial location from 1975 when helicopters evacuated the last Americans from Saigon. Opt to take an elevator ride in one of the city's oldest elevators, which have been in operation since the French colonial era. Admire the intricate lines of the Saigon Opera House, as well as the imposing Notre Dame Cathedral, with its red bricks and soaring spires, an example to French craftsmanship that, although being closed to tourists, remains beautiful. Just across the square, enter the sophisticated appeal of the Central Post Office, which was finished in 1891 and still exudes the elegance of a bygone period.

Take a short walk to the most significant historical sites of the city, the Reunification Palace which is former Residence of the Indochina Governor-General and later of the President of the Republic of Southern Vietnam until the down fall on April 30, 1975. Take a stroll around the Palace and admire the amazing work of its architecture while learning from your guide the untold stories connected to great changes in Ho Chi Minh City's history.

This afternoon, escape the bustling boulevards for a hidden gem: the FITO Museum, Vietnam's first museum devoted to traditional medicine. The museum is housed in a lovely wooden building and has approximately 3,000 relics, including old tools, traditional cures, and handwritten prescriptions dating back centuries. Learn about the principles and practices that underpin Vietnamese healing arts while walking through tranquil courtyards and elaborately carved interiors.
